Description

Luxury coastal living at its finest in a stunning elevated custom home built in 2021 with an elevator, bonus room, separate office, and massive saltwater swimming pool (2023) on an over half-acre lot in south Mount Pleasant! 1529 Tomato Farm Circle in the new and coveted Heirloom Landing neighborhood is 3951 square feet with 4 bedrooms and 3.5 bathrooms with high end finishes throughout that combine coastal charm with contemporary elegance for upscale Lowcountry living. The welcoming front porch with cable railing overlooking the pond and double front entry doors make way to the light-filled two-story foyer where this home's unique architectural and design details, wide plank white oak flooring, and high-end finishes are immediately on display. Just to the right is an office featuring a modern glass corner wall and sliding glass barn door. To the left is access to the sizable laundry room with an additional closet, large countertop with sink, and many cabinets for plenty of extra storage. The elevator that services all levels of the home and the half bath are conveniently located just beyond the foyer. Continuing into the open floor plan is the dining area with feature ceiling and alcove as well as an adjacent built-in wine rack and bar with open shelving and additional storage. The large great room with tray ceiling and gas log fireplace features two walls of telescoping sliding glass doors that flood the room with natural light and open up to the sprawling screened in back porch for incredible indoor-outdoor living, relaxing, and entertaining. The gourmet kitchen boasts a center island with room for seating and top of the line Monogram stainless steel appliances including an oversized double oven gas range with hood and a large side by side refrigerator. High end custom cabinetry and a sizable walk-in pantry provide ample storage for dish ware and kitchen appliances. The kitchen also features telescoping sliding glass doors to the screened porch for ease when entertaining or grilling with family and friends. This incredible back porch provides 370 square feet of additional living space and overlooks the expansive backyard of this 0.58-acre lot and the massive saltwater pool. The primary bedroom is also located on the main level and features a vaulted beamed ceiling and bright windows overlooking the pool and backyard. The primary bath has a large double vanity with undermount sinks, a frameless glass walk-in shower, beautiful floor to ceiling tile work, a freestanding soaking tub, and separate water closet. There is also a large walk-in closet that conveniently connects to the laundry room through a pocket door. The second floor of the home features a huge bonus room with a vaulted beamed ceiling, lots of natural light, and a wet bar with sink and beverage center. This space is perfect for a media room and a place to watch the game with friends or could be used as a playroom, workout space, or another office area. There are three additional bedrooms all with walk-in closets on this level as well as two hall baths, one with a double vanity and tiled glass shower and the other with a single vanity and tub-shower combo with tile surround. The ground level of the home has conditioned space for the elevator and stair access from the garage. This space also includes a mudroom area to serve as a convenient drop zone before entering the main level of the home. The three-car garage includes the entire footprint of the home and porches, with ample room for parking, storage, workshop space, and more. Another highlight is the garage's turf putting green and hitting practice spaces, perfect for any golf enthusiast! Outside the expansive backyard with beautiful mature trees is enclosed with a 6-foot wooden privacy fence. The large travertine patio is perfect for entertaining friends and family for pool days in the huge 19x42 foot gunite saltwater pool with jet water feature, sun ledge, and heater. This home provides a plethora of space both inside and outside to play, entertain, relax, and enjoy the best elements of Lowcountry living with modern luxury finishes. The Heirloom Landing neighborhood with its marsh front location has a shared community dock to enjoy kayaking, fishing, or just taking in the beautiful coastal views. 1529 Tomato Farm Circle is an incredible opportunity for a huge lot and stunning custom home in a prime location in south Mount Pleasant just minutes to the beaches and downtown Charleston!
